SQUIRE PETER BELL, yesterday, held Dr. John B. Campbell in bonds of $500 to appear and answer before the Court of Common Pleas, the charge of bastardy. The charge was preferred by a young lady named Matilda Williams. The Dr., we believe, is the proprietor of the Campbell Healing Institute, on Western Row, in this city.

Our city is at present infested with a gang of petty thieves, both male and female, who roam about under pretence of gathering rags. One of this class, a miserable looking woman was before the Police Judge, yesterday, charged with stealing rags, etc., from a gentleman named White, who resides in the Thirteenth Ward. She was arrested by officer Jones, but Mr. Jones, being overcome by sympathy, refused to prescente her. She was therefore discharged. Persons would do well to keep a look-out for this class of individuals.

DEATH IN THE CITY PRISON .- A man named Francis McGinnis, who was sent to the City Pricon, on Monday last, for the term of thirty days, upon a charge of vagrancy, died about 6 o'clock last evening, with delirium tremens, McGinnis had been unwell for two days past, and was under the care of the Jail Physician. Yesterday, in the fore part of the day, he was thought much better, but toward evening grew worse, and died as above stated. The deceased was of Irish birth, about forty years of age, and formerly resided at Ohio City, opposite Cleveland. Coroner Cary held an inquest, which resulted in a verdict of death from intemperance.

DISTURBING A FUNERAL.-Yesterday, while Rev. Richard Grey, (Episcopal,) City Missionary, was preaching the funeral of Mrs. Elizaboth Leach, deceased, at the residence of a friend, in Moody's Building, on Main street, between Sixth and Seventh, the house was entered by a man named John Ready, who became so boisterous as to render it necessary to eject him from the house in order to allow the ceremonies to proceed. Ready, it appears, occupies rooms in the same building, and, we are informed by Mr. Charles Cassidy-the gentleman who put him out-was under the influence of liquor at the time.

To-MORROW the Young America Division. No. 3, Sons of Temperance, go on a pic-nic excursion to Parlor Grove. The Champion No 3 will leave the foot of Walnut street at 75 o'clock, and in order to accommodate the citizens of the Seventeenth Ward, will land at Fulton Ferry at eight o'clock, A. M.

WE understand that the Humboldt oration will take place at the National Theatre, next Sabbath. Judge Stalle will deliver an ad dress appropriate to the occasion.

A cowardty assault was made upon a gentleman connected with the press, to-day, by Polly Rice, the proprietor of a low drinking house near the depot. Rice, who is a stout, burly customer, had the newspaper-man called from the Court House, about 11 o'clock, and as he came down the steps into the yard, Rice 'went for him," when a blow with the reporters fist "punished" the nose of his assaifant severely. Rice was enraged at some statement relative to the contested election case, in which he was a witness.

A MAN named Warder was knocked down and robbed last night on Broadway, near the National Bridge. He had been in a low drinking house kept by one Farlaugh, and upon leaving the premises was followed by a party of four or five men who assaulted him with slung-shots, they and suit my
